MEDIA ENTRANCE/WILL CALL: Should you need to pick up your media/photo credential on game day, our media will call window is located in the Box Office near the Southwest Gate. Media will call opens 60 minutes prior to tipoff.

PARKING: Press parking is located in Manor Garage (2017 Robert Dedman Drive). Parking is now digital for all Texas Basketball games and will be provided by Scott McConnell. Parking passes are limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

MEDIA WORKROOM: From the Northwest Lobby entrance, take a right and walk around the concourse until you come to the elevator lobby outside Section 124. Take the elevator down to the arena floor. From the elevator, take a right down the back hallway and the working press room/interview room will be located halfway down the hallway on the right. Working press are provided with pre-game notes and stats, flipcards with rosters and fact books along with post-game books (box score and play-by-play).

MEAL ROOM: During pre-game and halftime, there will be a room on the arena level available with food and drinks for working media and game management personnel. From the working press room, walk back in the direction of the elevators, enter the tunnel that heads to the court and make an immediate left.

MEDIA SEATING: Please locate the seating chart in the press room to find your seat location. In general, the visiting team's radio network is seated at the scorer's table next to its team bench. Home radio and the originating television broadcast crew are located at mid-court on the side opposite from the benches. All other media are seated in the press section, located in the upper two rows of Section 123 in the arena. Media can access that section by taking the elevator from the arena level up to the concourse. When you exit the elevator, take a left and you will enter Section 123.

Media Information & Policies

DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY SERVICES

The University of Texas provides a digital photographer work area which is located in the working press room. A limited number of ethernet ports as well as media materials are available in this area. Photographers and television camera personnel are limited to the areas that are marked in the baseline areas. The bench area for both teams are off limits at all times to photographers.

PHOTOGRAPHY SERVICES

High-quality photographs are available through UT's Media Relations Office. To request digital photographs of current and former Texas Basketball players and coaches, please contact the UT Athletics Photography Department via email at photo@athletics.utexas.edu.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Texas locker room is closed to the media. All postgame interviews will be conducted in the working press room. No interviews with Texas players or coaches are permitted on the court following the game, except for the originating television broadcast or SEC Network. After a 10-minute cooling off period, the visiting coach and select players (if approved by the visiting SID) will be escorted to the press room first. Following a 10-minute interview window with the visiting team, selected Texas players and Coach Terry will be available in the press room.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO COVERAGE

Any accredited media entity using "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Texas Athletics events (games, practices, media availabilities, postgame interviews and press conferences) may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage (see note below regarding policy on game video on web), or other electronic transmissions as approved by The University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. That three (3)-minute package may contain no more than two (2) minutes of game highlights. Its usage must be only as supporting edited video/audio for a reported video/audio story and not simply as a raw video post/rebroadcast/streamed highlights or interview sessions.

Accredited media entities may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event (or tape delay rebroadcast coverage in its entirety) without the advance written permission of The University of Texas athletics department. Video is for news usage only and may not be sponsored or sold. This policy includes all games, matches, practices and events involving any of Texas' athletics programs. It includes all media events - press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/post-game interviews.

NOTE REGARDING USE OF GAME VIDEO

Policy permits entities to use up to two (2) minutes of video on air (whether taken from the network feed or shot themselves) or on the entity's web site. Reports and features must be filed postgame and not during the game. If a game/event is contracted to a network television partner, all highlights may remain on a web site no longer than 48 hours following the game/event's conclusion. Highlights may not be used via social media platforms except as a link back to the web site/URL hosting the highlights.

Head Coach Rodney Terry

13th season at Texas
Third season as Head Coach at Texas | 13th Season as a Head Coach

Rodney Terry was officially named the 26th head coach in Men's Basketball program history at The University of Texas on March 27, 2023. Terry celebrated his 55th birthday on the date of the announcement.

Terry completed his second season as head coach and his 12th year in association with The University of Texas during the 2023-24 campaign. In his first two years as head coach of the Longhorns, Terry has guided Texas to a 43-21 (.672) overall record including a 4-2 mark in NCAA Tournament contests. The Longhorns have posted 11 victories against AP Top 25 opponents during Terry's first two years as head coach.

A former head coach at Fresno State and UTEP for a combined 10 seasons, he sports an overall head coaching career record of 206-177 (.538) in 12 total years. Terry, who has 29 years of collegiate coaching experience including nine as an assistant previously with the Longhorns from 2002-11, had returned to the Forty Acres in the role of Associate Head Coach prior to the 2021-22 season and took over the head coaching duties at Texas on Dec. 12, 2022.

Over the last three years in Austin, Terry has helped the Longhorns post a 72-34 (.679) overall record including a 5-3 mark in NCAA Tournament games. Texas has advanced to at least the NCAA Round of 32 in each of the last three seasons, including making a run to the NCAA Elite Eight in Terry's first year as head coach in 2022-23. This marks the first time Texas has won its NCAA First Round game in three consecutive seasons since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09. The Longhorns are one of just eight programs nationally to advance to at least the NCAA Tournament Round of 32 in each of the last three years, joining Baylor, Creighton, Gonzaga, Houston, Kansas, Michigan State and Tennessee.

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. UT finished at No. 25 in the final KenPom team rankings, recorded five Quad 1 wins and earned three victories against AP-ranked opponents. The Longhorns were one of 11 teams to rank in the top 31 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency.

Dylan Disu was named the Big 12's Most Improved Player, becoming the first Texas player to claim the honor since it began during the 2019-20 season, and earned first-team All-Big 12 mention from the coaches. Max Abmas garnered a spot on the first-team All-Big 12 team from the media and the five-person Big 12 All-Newcomer Team. In addition, Abmas was named the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Division I Men's Basketball Team Member of the Year, while Disu was named the Big 12 Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Terry was named Acting Head Coach at Texas a few hours prior to the home game against Rice on Dec. 12, 2022. Beginning with an overtime victory that night, Terry guided the Longhorns to a 22-8 mark that included the Big 12 Tournament title and a run to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight. Texas concluded the 2022-23 season with an overall record of 29-9 (12-6 Big 12, second) and ranked No. 5 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 7 in the final USA TODAY Sports Coaches poll.

Terry was tabbed 2023 Sporting News National Coach of the Year, becoming the first coach in program history to earn the honor. He was named the Clarence "Big House" Gaines College Basketball Division I Coach of the Year by the National Sports Media Association. Terry also was one of 20 finalists for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year Award and one of 25 finalists for the Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year.

The Longhorns advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the first time since 2008 and eighth time in program history. UT captured its second Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship title in program history, defeating No. 3 Kansas, 76-56, in the championship game in Kansas City, Mo. The Longhorns earned a No. 2 seed in the 2023 NCAA Tournament, marking the highest seed for Texas in the NCAA tourney since 2008 (also a No. 2 seed).

Texas completed the 2022-23 season with an overall record of 29-9 (12-6 Big 12, second) and ranked No. 5 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 7 in the final USA TODAY Sports Coaches poll. The No. 5 spot marked a tie for the highest ranking in the final AP poll by the Longhorns, as UT also was No. 5 in the final AP poll during the 2002-03 Final Four season. The No. 7 spot marked the third-highest ranking in the final Coaches poll in program history and highest since a No. 5 ranking following the 2007-08 season.

The 29 wins were the third-most in a single season in program history, as UT went 31-7 in 2007-08 and 30-7 in 2005-06. The Longhorns compiled a 10-7 record against AP Top 25 opponents in 2022-23, and the 10 wins were the most in the nation against AP-ranked foes. The 10 wins against AP-ranked opponents also set a school single-season record, as UT previously went 8-5 in 2003-04. Texas posted a 6-3 mark against AP Top 11 foes during the 2022-23 season and tied a single-season school record for most games played (38). UT began the year at No. 12 in the preseason AP poll and spent all 19 weeks of the poll in the top 12, including 17 consecutive weeks in the top 10. That marked the longest such stretch since Texas was in the top 10 for all 19 polls during the 2002-03 Final Four season.

After taking over the head coaching role on Dec. 12, Terry guided the Longhorns to eight wins against AP Top 25 opponents (vs. No. 17 TCU, vs. No. 11 Baylor, at No. 7 K-State, vs. No 23 Iowa State, vs. No. 3 Kansas twice, vs. No. 22 TCU and vs. No. 13 Xavier). UT went 8-1 under Terry's leadership during the 2022-23 season in games decided by five points or less OR in overtime.

The Longhorns were one of three teams to rank in the top 15 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency. Texas (15 offense, 13 defense) was joined by UConn (3 offense, 7 defense) and Houston (11 offense, 5 defense). Since the Big 12 moved to an 18-game round-robin schedule starting in the 2011-12 season, Texas reached the 12-win mark for the first time in league play (12-6 record). Seventeen of UT's 29 victories during the 2022-23 season were by at least 10 points.

Marcus Carr claimed first-team All-Big 12 honors, becoming the first UT player to receive first-team All-Big 12 accolades since Isaiah Taylor in 2015-16. Sir'Jabari Rice was tabbed the National Sixth Man of the Year by College Hoops Today (Jon Rothstein) in addition to earning the league's Sixth Man Award. Rice also was named a third-team All-Big 12 and Big 12 All-Newcomer Team selection. In addition, Timmy Allen was selected as an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick.

In addition to driving UT's success on the court, Terry has helped the Longhorns create a true home court advantage in the first two seasons inside Moody Center, the $375 million world-class arena located on campus that opened in April 2022. Texas has registered a 30-5 record in Moody and has averaged 10,819 fans per game during the arena's first two years. The arena's official capacity is 10,763 but there is a standing-room only area in the upper concourse for UT students used as overflow for the Corral, the official UT student section which surrounds 270-degrees of the court.

Texas played in front of a sellout crowd in all 17 contests (16-1 record) in Moody Center and averaged 10,965 fans per game during the 2022-23 season. The Longhorns posted a 6-0 record against AP Top 25 opponents that year, including a 3-0 mark against AP Top 10 foes with wins over No. 2 Gonzaga, No. 3 Kansas and No. 7 Creighton. Texas also won its Throwback Game in historic Gregory Gymnasium on the UT campus and posted an overall mark of 17-1 in home games in 2022-23, tying the school record for most home wins in a season (also went 17-1 in 2007-08).

In his first year back in Austin in 2021-22, Terry helped the Longhorns to a 22-12 overall record (10-8 Big 12 Conference, fourth). Texas earned an 81-73 win over Virginia Tech in the NCAA Tournament Round of 64, marking the school's first NCAA tourney win since 2014, before falling to No. 10/9 (No. 3 seed) Purdue in a hard-fought battle in the Round of 32.

The 22 total wins by the Longhorns were the most since Texas had 24 victories in 2013-14. UT, which appeared in every Associated Press Top 25 poll except one during the season, placed No. 25 in the final AP poll. This marked just the second time Texas had been in the final AP poll since the 2010-11 season (UT was No. 9 in the final poll in 2021). The Longhorns reached the 20-win mark in the month of February for the first time since 2013-14 and reached the 20-win mark in the regular season for the first time since 2015-16.

Playing in the toughest league in the country, the Big 12 featured a pair of No. 1 seeds in Kansas and Baylor, the eventual national champion (Kansas), two additional Sweet 16 teams and six total NCAA tourney squads (all six won their respective NCAA Round of 64 games). Texas played AP-ranked opponents in eight of its last 11 games and faced 10 NCAA Tournament opponents in a total of 16 games. In their two match-ups against the national champion Jayhawks, the Longhorns earned an impressive 79-76 home win over No. 8/8 Kansas (Feb. 7) and took the No. 6/7 Jayhawks to overtime on Senior Day in Allen Fieldhouse before falling 70-63 (March 5).

All five Texas starters (Timmy Allen, second team; Marcus Carr, third team; Christian Bishop, honorable mention; Andrew Jones, honorable mention; Courtney Ramey, honorable mention) earned spots on the Phillips 66 All-Big 12 Men's Basketball Award teams, selected by the league's head coaches. The Longhorns led the Big 12 and finished No. 10 in scoring defense (60.6 ppg), ranked second in the league and No. 22 nationally in turnover margin (+3.4) and second in the league in turnovers per game (11.5), showcasing a culture of defense and ball security.

Texas was No. 15 in the final KenPom analytics rankings. UT finished No. 14 in the nation in defensive efficiency (91.6) and No. 26 nationally in offensive efficiency (112.5). The Longhorns were one of 10 teams to rank in the Top 30 in both offensive and defensive efficiency in 2021-22, joining Gonzaga, Houston, Kansas, Baylor, Arizona, Villanova, UCLA, Auburn and Illinois.

Prior to returning to Austin, Terry spent three seasons (2018-21) as the head coach at UTEP and posted a 29-27 record in his final two years in El Paso. In his second season (2019-20), the Miners registered a 17-15 overall mark, winning nine more games than the previous year. UTEP posted its first winning season in four years and tallied a 13-4 record in the Haskins Center, its best home mark and most home wins in four seasons. The Miners defeated New Mexico State and New Mexico in the same season for the first time since 2008-09. UTEP also recorded its largest comeback victory in program history, overcoming a 24-point deficit against UTSA to win 80-77 in overtime.

Terry helped develop Bryson Williams, who earned All-C-USA first team and NABC District 11 first team accolades following the 2019-20 season. Williams became the first UTEP player in five years to claim first-team all-league recognition and the first since 2010 to garner the mention from the NABC. In Terry's first season (2018-19), he helped Efe Odigie earn All-C-USA Freshman team accolades, as Odigie averaged a double-double (12.7 ppg, 10.1 rpg) for the season. Odigie was the first Miner to average a double-double since the 1981-82 season, and his rebounding average set a UTEP freshman record.

Terry worked for seven years (2011-18) as the head coach at Fresno State University, guiding the Bulldogs to an overall record of 126-108. He posted 20-win seasons in four of his last five years and double-digit win totals in Mountain West Conference play in each of his last four seasons. Fresno State recorded 21 victories in 2013-14, 25 in 2015-16, 20 in 2016-17 and 21 in 2017-18. The Bulldogs went 10-8 in the Mountain West in 2014-15, 13-5 in 2015-16 (second place) and 11-7 in 2016-17 and 2017-18.

During the 2015-16 season, Terry led the Bulldogs to a 25-10 record and the Mountain West Conference Tournament championship. Fresno State advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2001, and the 25 wins marked the third-most in school history.

Terry guided Fresno State to an appearance in the NIT in 2016-17 and the finals of the CBI in 2013-14. His 2014-15 team recorded the school's first win over a Top 25 opponent (San Diego State) in 13 years. The 2013-14 Bulldogs, who rallied from a 1-7 start in league play to finish 9-9, notched the program's first 20-win season and postseason appearance in seven years. During Terry's second season in Fresno (2012-13), the Bulldogs claimed their first-ever win at UNLV.

Terry spent nine seasons (2002-11) as an assistant coach under Rick Barnes at The University of Texas. During those nine years, the Longhorns posted an overall record of 232-80 (.744) and made nine NCAA Tournament appearances, highlighted by four trips to the Sweet 16 (2003, 2004, 2006 and 2008), three Elite Eights (2003, 2006 and 2008) and one Final Four (2003).

A total of 10 McDonald's All-Americans made their way to the UT campus during this stretch, including Brad Buckman (2002), LaMarcus Aldridge (2004), Daniel Gibson (2004), Mike Williams (2004), D.J. Augustin (2006), Kevin Durant (2006), Jai Lucas (2007), Avery Bradley (2009), Cory Joseph (2010) and Tristan Thompson (2010). The two-person class of Joseph and Thompson ranked as the No. 8 recruiting class in the country by ESPN. UT's three-man freshman class in 2009 was ranked No. 3 nationally by Rivals and No. 4 by ESPNU. The seven-man freshman class in 2006 was tabbed as the No. 3 class in the country by Rivals and Scout. Texas' five-man freshman class in 2004 featured three McDonald's All-Americans and was tabbed the No. 1 class in the nation by Hoop Scoop.

UT climbed to the top of both major national polls (AP and USA Today Coaches) on Jan. 11, 2010, marking the first time in program history that the Longhorns had been the top-ranked team in the nation in either major poll. Texas held the top spot in both polls for a two-week stretch. UT set a school record for most wins in a season (31-7) in 2007-08. While using a starting rotation that featured four freshmen (including eventual consensus National Player of the Year Kevin Durant) and a sophomore in 2006-07, the Longhorns went 25-10 and advanced to the NCAA Second Round. In 2005-06, Texas posted a 30-7 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Longhorns registered a 25-8 mark and reached their third straight Sweet 16 in 2003-04. In Terry's first season in Austin (2002-03), UT tallied a 26-7 record and advanced to the Final Four for the first time since 1947, a span of 56 years.

Texas claimed two National Player of the Year winners during Terry's previous stint, T.J. Ford (2003) and Kevin Durant (2007). UT boasted three consensus first-team All-Americans (Ford in 2003, Durant in 2007 and D.J. Augustin in 2008), and Augustin claimed the Bob Cousy Award as the nation's top point guard in 2008.

The Longhorns had 13 players drafted in the nine years under Terry, including nine first-round selections and five lottery picks: T.J. Ford, No. 8 by Milwaukee in 2003; Royal Ivey, No. 37 by Atlanta in 2004; LaMarcus Aldridge, No. 2 by Chicago in 2006; P.J. Tucker, No. 35 by Toronto in 2006; Daniel Gibson, No. 42 by Cleveland in 2006; Kevin Durant, No. 2 by Seattle in 2007; D.J. Augustin, No. 9 by Charlotte in 2008; Avery Bradley, No. 19 by Boston in 2010; Damion James, No. 24 by Atlanta in 2010; Dexter Pittman, No. 32 by Miami in 2010; Tristan Thompson, No. 4 by Cleveland in 2011; Jordan Hamilton, No. 26 by Dallas in 2011; and Cory Joseph, No. 29 by San Antonio in 2011.

Both Aldridge (2006) and Durant (2007) were selected as the No. 2 overall picks in their respective drafts, and UT became the first school to have a Top Two pick in consecutive NBA Drafts since DePaul in 1981-82. Texas also was the only school in the nation to have a Top 10 pick in the 2006, 2007 and 2008 NBA Drafts.

Terry joined Rick Barnes' staff at Texas on June 11, 2002. For seven weeks prior to coming to UT, Terry served on Jerry Wainwright's staff at the University of Richmond after spending the previous four seasons under Wainwright at UNC Wilmington.

While at UNC Wilmington, Terry was instrumental in helping the program produce three postseason appearances in his four years. The Seahawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1999-2000 and 2001-02 and reached the postseason NIT in 2000-01. During his final year with the Seahawks (2001-02), UNCW posted a 23-10 overall mark, setting a school record for most victories in a season. The Seahawks also collected their first NCAA Tournament win in school history, upsetting USC 98-89 in overtime in the first round.

UNCW registered an overall record of 71-51 (.582) during Terry's four seasons. In his second year, Terry helped the Seahawks land a top 30 national recruiting class according to Hoop Scoop. In 2001-02, Terry was named the co-mid/low-major Assistant Coach of the Year by TheInsiderHoops.com, sharing the honor with Valparaiso's Scott Drew (now the head coach at Baylor).

Prior to his time at UNCW, Terry served two years as an assistant coach at Baylor University (1996-98). Brian Skinner was selected as the No. 22 overall pick by the Los Angeles Clippers in the 1998 NBA Draft.

He spent one season (1995-96) as the varsity coach at Angleton (Texas) High School and two years as the head coach at Somerville (Texas) High School. Terry posted a 15-13 mark at Angleton and a 49-21 overall record at Somerville, where he led the school to the Class 2A state semifinals in 1993-94. He also worked for two years (1991-93) as an assistant coach at Austin Bowie (Texas) High School.

A native of Angleton, Texas, Terry started his coaching career as an assistant coach at his alma mater, St. Edward's University in Austin, Texas. He worked for one season (1990-91) at St. Edward's before moving on to his post at Bowie High.

Terry graduated from St. Edward's University in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and a minor in physical education. During his collegiate career, he was a three-year starter at point guard and a three-time Academic All-Big State Conference selection. The Hilltoppers won the Big State Conference title during his freshman season in 1986-87, and he also served as team captain during his junior and senior campaigns.

Assistant Coach Frank Haith

Fifth season at Texas

Frank Haith is in his second season in his second stint as Assistant Coach at the University of Texas and his fifth year overall on the UT staff. Haith has 35 years of coaching experience, including 18 as a Division I head coach at Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Tulsa.

In his 18 seasons as a Division I head coach, Haith posted a career record of 343-237 (.591). He served as head coach at Miami (Fla.) for seven seasons (2004-11), Missouri for three years (2011-14) and Tulsa for eight seasons (2014-22). Haith guided all three programs to the NCAA Tournament, and he earned either conference or district Coach of the Year honors at each of those three schools. He guided 10 of those teams to postseason play, including four NCAA Tournament appearances.

Haith was named the National Coach of the Year by The Associated Press and United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) in 2012 while at Missouri. He also was a National Coach of the Year finalist in 2005 during his time at Miami.

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. With its victory over Colorado State in the NCAA Round of 64, the Longhorns won their NCAA First Round game for the third consecutive season. This marked the first time Texas has accomplished the feat since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09.

UT finished at No. 25 in the final KenPom team rankings, recorded five Quad 1 wins and earned three victories against AP-ranked opponents, including a 75-73 home win over No. 9 Baylor, a 75-60 victory at No. 11 Oklahoma and a 77-66 win at No. 25 TCU. The Longhorns were one of 11 teams to rank in the top 31 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency.

Dylan Disu was named the Big 12's Most Improved Player, becoming the first Texas player to claim the honor since it began during the 2019-20 season, and earned first-team All-Big 12 mention from the coaches. Max Abmas garnered a spot on the first-team All-Big 12 team from the media and the five-person Big 12 All-Newcomer Team. In addition, Abmas was named the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Division I Men's Basketball Team Member of the Year, while Disu was named the Big 12 Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Prior to returning to Texas, Haith served as an assistant coach under Penny Hardaway at the University of Memphis during the 2022-23 season. The Tigers posted a 26-9 overall record (13-5 American) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament before dropping a 66-65 decision to eventual Final Four participant Florida Atlantic. The 26 victories marked the most by a Memphis team since the Tigers posted 31 wins in the 2012-13 season. Memphis won 14 of its last 18 games to end the year, including a 75-65 victory against No. 1 Houston in the championship game of the American Athletic Conference (AAC) tournament.

Haith compiled a 138-108 (.561) record in eight years as the head coach at Tulsa to place second on the school's all-time coaching wins list. He guided his first team at Tulsa in 2014-15 to the Postseason NIT and led the Golden Hurricane to an appearance in the First Four of the NCAA Tournament in 2015-16. Haith led Tulsa to three 20-win seasons and garnered AAC Coach of the Year and NABC District 24 Coach of the Year accolades in 2019-20, guiding the team to a 21-10 record and a share of the AAC's regular-season title (first in program history) with a 13-5 league mark prior to the postseason being canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The conference crown in 2019-20 came when the Golden Hurricane was picked to finish 10th in the preseason league poll, marking the sixth-straight year that Tulsa outpaced its preseason projections under Haith's leadership.

During his three seasons as head coach at Missouri, Haith led the Tigers to an overall record of 76-28 (.731) and three postseason appearances, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament. In his first year in Columbia (2011-12), he guided a Missouri squad that was picked to finish fourth in the Big 12 preseason poll to a 30-5 overall record (14-4 Big 12). The Tigers set a school single-season record for most wins in a year, claimed the Big 12 Tournament crown and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Haith was selected as the Henry Iba National Coach of the Year (USBWA) and The Associated Press National Coach of the Year in addition to being named the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year and the USBWA District VI Coach of the Year. In year two (2012-13), Haith led Missouri to a 23-11 mark (11-7 SEC) and a second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance and became the fastest head coach in program history to reach 50 wins. The 2013-14 Missouri squad posted a 23-12 record and reached the NIT Second Round.

Haith was named head coach at the University of Miami (Fla.) on April 11, 2004. He posted a 129-101 (.561) mark in his seven seasons at Miami, leading the Hurricanes to three 20-win campaigns, one NCAA tourney and four NIT appearances. In year one (2004-05), Haith took a team that was coming off two-straight losing seasons and picked to finish last in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and guided the squad to a 16-13 mark and the NIT First Round, the school's first postseason appearance since 2002. He was named a finalist for the 2005 Naismith National Coach of the Year award and claimed NABC District 6 Coach of the Year accolades. Haith led the Hurricanes to an 18-16 record and the NIT quarterfinals in his second season in 2005-06. During the 2007-08 season, Miami posted a 23-11 mark (one win shy at the time of tying the school record for victories in a year) and advanced to the NCAA Round of 32 before dropping a hard-fought 75-72 decision to No. 2 seed Texas. Haith led the Hurricanes to NIT appearances in 2009 and 2011 and averaged 21 wins per year over his last four seasons in Miami. During his time as head coach in Coral Gables, he saw 31-of-33 seniors earn their degrees. Haith also served as an assistant coach for USA Basketball at the 2009 World University Games and helped lead Team USA to a bronze medal in Belgrade, Serbia.

During his three previous seasons (2001-04) on the Forty Acres, Haith helped the Longhorns register an overall record of 73-27 (.730), including a 35-13 (.729) mark in Big 12 Conference play. Texas advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in both 2001-02 and 2003-04 and made a run to the NCAA Final Four in 2002-03, the school's first trip to the Final Four since 1947. Haith helped recruit and/or develop six UT players who went on to play in the NBA, including Chris Owens, T.J. Ford, Royal Ivey, LaMarcus Aldridge, P.J. Tucker and Daniel Gibson.

In the 2001-02 season, the Longhorns overcame the mid-season loss of All-America candidate Chris Owens and used a primary rotation of four sophomores and freshman point guard T.J. Ford to post a 22-12 record (10-6 Big 12) and advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time since 1996-97. Ford became the first freshman in NCAA history to lead the nation in assists (8.27 avg.) and earned USBWA National Freshman of the Year honors. Texas finished the 2001-02 season tied at No. 18 in the final USA TODAY coaches poll. Despite his injury, Owens was selected as the No. 48 pick in the 2002 NBA Draft by Milwaukee (traded to Memphis).

During the 2002-03 campaign, UT tied the then-school record for most victories in a season with a 26-7 mark (13-3 Big 12). Texas was ranked in The AP Top 10 for all 19 weeks of the season, reaching No. 2 in both major national polls on Dec. 2, 2002, with 13 of those 19 weeks spent in the Top Five. The Longhorns used a formula of depth and exceptional team chemistry to earn their first-ever No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Texas posted wins over UNC Asheville and Purdue in the First and Second Rounds in Birmingham, prior to earning victories against UConn and Michigan State at the South Regional in San Antonio to advance to the school's first Final Four since 1947, a span of 56 years. The Texas-Syracuse game in the NCAA Semifinals was played before 54,432 fans in the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, the largest crowd to ever see a Texas Basketball game. Ford became the first player in school history to win the Naismith and Wooden Awards as college basketball's National Player of the Year and was selected as the No. 8 pick in the 2003 NBA Draft by Milwaukee. Haith was instrumental in the recruitment of P.J. Tucker, who went on to earn Big 12 Player of the Year honors during his junior season in 2005-06.

Haith was elevated to associate head coach prior to the 2003-04 season, and Texas posted a 25-8 mark (12-4 Big 12) and again advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third-consecutive year. The Longhorns were one of just five schools nationally (joining UConn, Duke, Kansas and Pittsburgh) that reached at least the Sweet 16 in each of those three seasons. Texas tallied an 8-5 mark against AP Top 25 competition and ranked No. 12 in the final AP poll and No. 10 in the final USA TODAY coaches poll. Royal Ivey was selected as the No. 37 pick in the 2004 NBA Draft by Atlanta, and Tucker proved to be one of the top freshmen in both the Big 12 and the nation. Prior to Haith's departure to take the head coaching job at Miami (Fla.), he played an integral role in landing the nation's top recruiting class that featured a trio of McDonald's All-Americans in LaMarcus Aldridge, Daniel Gibson and Mike Williams.

Haith spent four years (1997-98 through 2000-01) as an assistant coach at Wake Forest under Dave Odom. He was instrumental in leading the Demon Deacons to four consecutive postseason tournament appearances, including a NCAA First Round showing in 2000-01. The Deacons posted a 74-53 (.583) mark during Haith's four seasons in Winston-Salem, and he helped secure one of the nation's top 10 recruiting classes in 1999-2000. Wake Forest advanced to the NIT Second Round in both 1997-98 and 1998-99, before its youthful 1999-2000 squad tallied a 22-14 mark and captured the NIT Championship.

Haith began his full-time coaching career by working as a graduate assistant coach at Wake Forest for one season (1989-90) during Dave Odom's first year in Winston-Salem. He served two years as an assistant coach at UNC Wilmington (1990-91 to 1991-92), three seasons as an assistant coach at Texas A&M (1992-93 to 1994-95), and one year as an assistant coach at Penn State (1995-96). During his stint at Texas A&M, he helped the Aggies secure back-to-back recruiting classes that were ranked in the top 30 nationally and was a part of the staff in 1993-94 when Texas A&M registered a 19-11 mark, finished second in the Southwest Conference and advanced to the NIT First Round, the first postseason appearance for the Aggies in seven years. Haith helped Penn State post a 21-7 record in 1995-96, climb to as high as No. 9 in the national polls, finish second in the Big Ten Conference and earn the school's first NCAA Tournament bid in 31 years. He then returned to Texas A&M and served for one season as associate head coach in 1996-97.

Haith graduated in 1988 from Elon College (now Elon University) in North Carolina with a bachelor's degree in physical education. A Dean's List student, he served as a student assistant coach during his final two years of school. Following graduation, Haith worked as a part-time member of the Elon coaching staff while teaching in the public schools at nearby Western Middle School. During his three years of association with the Elon coaching staff, the Fighting Christians (now called the Phoenix) enjoyed a pair of 20-win seasons.

Born in Queens, N.Y., Haith grew up in Burlington, N.C. He and his wife, Pam, have a son, Corey, and a daughter, Brianna.

Assistant Coach Steve McClain

Third season at Texas

A former head coach at the University of Wyoming and the University of Illinois at Chicago for a combined 14 seasons, Steve McClain is in his second season as Assistant Coach at The University of Texas and his third year on the Texas staff. McClain, who has 42 years of coaching experience, served in the role of Special Assistant to the Head Coach in the 2022-23 season.

In his first two seasons in Austin, McClain has helped the Longhorns post a 50-22 (.694) overall record. Texas has made two NCAA Tournament appearances (2023 Elite Eight and 2024 Round of 32) and claimed the 2023 Big 12 Tournament title.

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. With its victory over Colorado State in the NCAA Round of 64, the Longhorns won their NCAA First Round game for the third consecutive season. This marked the first time Texas has accomplished the feat since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09.

UT finished at No. 25 in the final KenPom team rankings, recorded five Quad 1 wins and earned three victories against AP-ranked opponents, including a 75-73 home win over No. 9 Baylor, a 75-60 victory at No. 11 Oklahoma and a 77-66 win at No. 25 TCU. The Longhorns were one of 11 teams to rank in the top 31 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency.

Dylan Disu was named the Big 12's Most Improved Player, becoming the first Texas player to claim the honor since it began during the 2019-20 season, and earned first-team All-Big 12 mention from the coaches. Max Abmas garnered a spot on the first-team All-Big 12 team from the media and the five-person Big 12 All-Newcomer Team. In addition, Abmas was named the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Division I Men's Basketball Team Member of the Year, while Disu was named the Big 12 Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

In McClain's first year in Austin, Texas completed the 2022-23 season with an overall record of 29-9 (12-6 Big 12, second) and ranked No. 5 in the final Associated Press poll. The No. 5 spot marked a tie for the highest ranking in the final AP poll by the Longhorns. UT also was No. 5 in the final AP poll during the 2002-03 Final Four season. The Longhorns advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the first time since 2008 and eighth time in program history. Texas captured its second Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship title in program history, defeating No. 3 Kansas, 76-56, in the championship game in Kansas City, Mo.

The 29 wins were the third-most in a single season in program history, as UT went 31-7 in 2007-08 and 30-7 in 2005-06. The Longhorns compiled a 10-7 record against AP Top 25 opponents in 2022-23. This set a school single-season record for most wins in a year against AP-ranked teams, as UT previously went 8-5 in 2003-04. Texas posted a 6-3 mark against AP Top 11 foes during the 2022-23 season and tied a program single-season record for most games played (38).

The Longhorns were one of three teams to rank in the top 15 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency. Texas (15 offense, 13 defense) was joined by UConn (3 offense, 7 defense) and Houston (11 offense, 5 defense). Since the Big 12 moved to an 18-game round-robin schedule starting in the 2011-12 season, Texas reached the 12-win mark for the first time in league play (12-6 record). Seventeen of UT's 29 victories this season were by at least 10 points.

Marcus Carr claimed first-team All-Big 12 honors, becoming the first UT player to receive first-team All-Big 12 accolades since Isaiah Taylor in 2015-16. Sir'Jabari Rice was tabbed the National Sixth Man of the Year by College Hoops Today (Jon Rothstein) in addition to earning the league's Sixth Man Award. Rice also was named a third-team All-Big 12 and Big 12 All-Newcomer Team selection. In addition, Timmy Allen was selected as an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick.

In his 14 seasons overall as a NCAA Division I head coach, McClain compiled a 233-208 (.528) record. Prior to coming to Austin, McClain worked as an assistant coach under Tom Crean at the University of Georgia for the previous two seasons (2020-22). During his first year in Athens (2020-21), the Bulldogs posted a 14-12 record (7-11 Southeastern Conference).

McClain spent five seasons as the head coach of the University of Illinois at Chicago from 2010-15. In those five years, the Flames registered a 76-93 record and made two appearances in the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), advancing to the CBI semifinals in 2017 and finishing as CBI runners-up in 2018. The Flames won 16 or more games in each of McClain's last four years, marking just the second time to accomplish the feat in the program's 73-year history. UIC also advanced to the title game of the 2020 Horizon League Tournament, the first time the school had reached the league's championship game since 2004.

Under McClain's leadership, UIC set team season records for points (2,749 in 2016-17), three-point field goals made (303 in 2018-19), rebounds (1,426 in 2016-17), assists (524 in 2016-17) and blocked shots (242 in 2017-18). Dikembe Dixson was named Horizon League Freshman of the Year in 2016, while Tai Odiase earned Horizon League Defensive Player of the Year accolades in both 2017 and 2018. Godwin Boahen claimed Horizon League Sixth Man of the Year honors in 2018, and Tarkus Ferguson was tabbed Horizon League All-Freshman Team in 2017 and earned spots on the All-Horizon League team in 2019 and 2020.

McClain spent five seasons (2010-15) under Crean at Indiana University, serving as an assistant coach for two years (2010-12) before working as an associate head coach for his final three seasons (2012-15). During McClain's time in Bloomington, the Hoosiers registered a 105-75 overall record, won the outright Big Ten regular season title in 2013 and made three NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back trips to the Sweet Sixteen in 2012 and 2013.

McClain helped Indiana land recruiting classes ranked No. 7 in 2012, No. 4 in 2013 and No. 21 in 2014. He also played a pivotal role in developing NBA lottery picks Victor Oladipo (No. 2 overall by Orlando in 2013), Cody Zeller (No. 4 overall by Charlotte in 2013) and Noah Vonleh (No. 9 overall by Charlotte in 2014). Oladipo and Zeller earned first-team All-America honors, and Oladipo was selected as Sporting News' National Player of the Year in 2013.

Prior to his stint at Indiana, McClain spent three seasons (2007-10) under Jeff Bzdelik at the University of Colorado. McClain was an assistant coach for one year (2007-08) before working as an associate head coach for his final two seasons (2008-10). He helped develop Alec Burks, who earned Big 12 Freshman of the Year accolades in 2010 and was later selected by the Utah Jazz with the No. 12 overall pick in the 2011 NBA Draft.

McClain spent nine seasons as the head coach at the University of Wyoming (1998-2007). During his nine years, the Cowboys posted a 157-115 mark and earned back-to-back Mountain West Conference regular-season championships in 2001 and 2002. The outright title in 2002 marked the program's first outright league championship in 20 years. In the 2001-02 season, McClain led Wyoming to a 22-9 record and the NCAA Tournament Round of 32 after posting an upset of Gonzaga in the Round of 64. The Cowboys also made three trips to the NIT (1999, 2001 and 2003) during his tenure. McClain is one of only two coaches in Wyoming program history to post three consecutive 20-win seasons.

Prior to his time at Wyoming, McClain served four seasons (1994-98) as an assistant coach at TCU under Billy Tubbs. In the year prior to McClain's arrival, the Horned Frogs posted a 7-20 mark. During his four seasons in Fort Worth, McClain helped TCU register an 81-44 overall record and earn spots in the 1998 NCAA Tournament and the 1997 NIT. In the 1997-98 season, the Horned Frogs tallied a 27-6 mark, finished No. 15 in the final Associated Press poll, became the first team to go undefeated in Western Athletic Conference (WAC) history and led the nation in scoring (97.2 ppg).

McClain spent three seasons (1991-94) as the head coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College, compiling a 91-16 (.850) record during that time. During his final year at Hutchinson in 1993-94, the team posted a 35-4 record and won the NJCAA National Championship while averaging 90 points per contest. McClain was recognized as the NJCAA and NABC-Kodak National Coach of the Year in 1994. He also served as an assistant coach at Hutchinson for five seasons (1986-91), helping the Dragons win the NJCAA National Championship in 1988.

McClain began his coaching career as an undergraduate student assistant during his final two years (1982-84) at Chadron State College in Chadron, Neb. Following graduation, he served as an assistant coach at Sioux Empire Junior College in Iowa (1984-85) and Independence Community College in Kansas (1985-86).

A native of Orient, Iowa, McClain graduated from Chadron State College in 1984 with a bachelor's degree in Health. He and his wife, Kim, have one son, Dylan.

Third season at Texas

Brandon Chappell is in his third year as Assistant Coach at The University of Texas. Chappell brings 11 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Texas staff.

In his first two seasons in Austin, Chappell has helped the Longhorns post a 50-22 (.694) overall record. Texas has made two NCAA Tournament appearances (2023 Elite Eight and 2024 Round of 32) and claimed the 2023 Big 12 Tournament title.

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. With its victory over Colorado State in the NCAA Round of 64, the Longhorns won their NCAA First Round game for the third consecutive season. This marked the first time Texas has accomplished the feat since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09.

UT finished at No. 25 in the final KenPom team rankings, recorded five Quad 1 wins and earned three victories against AP-ranked opponents, including a 75-73 home win over No. 9 Baylor, a 75-60 victory at No. 11 Oklahoma and a 77-66 win at No. 25 TCU. The Longhorns were one of 11 teams to rank in the top 31 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency.

Dylan Disu was named the Big 12's Most Improved Player, becoming the first Texas player to claim the honor since it began during the 2019-20 season, and earned first-team All-Big 12 mention from the coaches. Max Abmas garnered a spot on the first-team All-Big 12 team from the media and the five-person Big 12 All-Newcomer Team. In addition, Abmas was named the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Division I Men's Basketball Team Member of the Year, while Disu was named the Big 12 Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

In Chappell's first year in Austin, Texas completed the 2022-23 season with an overall record of 29-9 (12-6 Big 12, second) and ranked No. 5 in the final Associated Press poll. The No. 5 spot marked a tie for the highest ranking in the final AP poll by the Longhorns. UT also was No. 5 in the final AP poll during the 2002-03 Final Four season. The Longhorns advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the first time since 2008 and eighth time in program history. Texas captured its second Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship title in program history, defeating No. 3 Kansas, 76-56, in the championship game in Kansas City, Mo.

The 29 wins were the third-most in a single season in program history, as UT went 31-7 in 2007-08 and 30-7 in 2005-06. The Longhorns compiled a 10-7 record against AP Top 25 opponents in 2022-23. This set a school single-season record for most wins in a year against AP-ranked teams, as UT previously went 8-5 in 2003-04. Texas posted a 6-3 mark against AP Top 11 foes during the 2022-23 season and tied a program single-season record for most games played (38).

2013-14	Armstrong State	Assistant Coach

The Longhorns were one of three teams to rank in the top 15 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency. Texas (15 offense, 13 defense) was joined by UConn (3 offense, 7 defense) and Houston (11 offense, 5 defense). Since the Big 12 moved to an 18-game round-robin schedule starting in the 2011-12 season, Texas reached the 12-win mark for the first time in league play (12-6 record). Seventeen of UT's 29 victories this season were by at least 10 points.

Marcus Carr claimed first-team All-Big 12 honors, becoming the first UT player to receive first-team All-Big 12 accolades since Isaiah Taylor in 2015-16. Sir'Jabari Rice was tabbed the National Sixth Man of the Year by College Hoops Today (Jon Rothstein) in addition to earning the league's Sixth Man Award. Rice also was named a third-team All-Big 12 and Big 12 All-Newcomer Team selection. In addition, Timmy Allen was selected as an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick.

Chappell worked as an assistant for head coach Kevin Kruger at UNLV during the 2021-22 season. Chappell helped the Runnin' Rebels to 18 wins (18-14 record), the most for UNLV in four years. The team went 10-8 in Mountain West Conference action, exceeding preseason expectations with a fifth-place finish in the regular-season league standings.

Chappell assisted in overhauling the roster with nine transfers and the team continually improved throughout the season, moving up 43 spots in the KenPom rankings. Bryce Hamilton (first team), Royce Hamm Jr. (honorable mention) and Donovan Williams (Sixth Man of the Year) earned All-Mountain West recognition, while Kruger was one of 15 finalists for the Joe B. Hall Award, presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I men's college basketball by CollegeInsider.com.

Prior to his time in Las Vegas, Chappell spent four seasons (2017-21) as an assistant coach under Tic Price for his alma mater, Lamar University. He helped the Cardinals to a 20-13 record in the 2018-19 campaign, marking the first time in a seven-year span that Lamar reached the 20-win mark. Chappell also played a role in the development of David Muoka, who earned Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year recognition during the 2020-21 season.

Chappell worked as an assistant coach at Arkansas-Fort Smith for one season in 2016-17. The Lions posted a 23-11 overall record, swept the Heartland Conference regular-season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Division II tournament.

He spent two years at Northern Arizona University (2014-16), serving as a graduate assistant and recruiting coordinator during the same time that Kruger was an assistant coach in 2014-15. During Chappell's time at NAU, the Lumberjacks set a school single-season record for wins (23-15 mark) and finished runner-up in the 2015 CollegeInsider.com tournament.

Chappell began his collegiate coaching career at Armstrong State (Savannah, Ga.) as an assistant coach in 2013-14. He worked with Nike Basketball Camps in Atlanta, Ga. in both 2012 and 2013.

A four-year letterwinner and two-time team captain at Lamar University (2003-07) while playing for legendary head coach Billy Tubbs, he still ranks among the school's all-time leaders in three-pointers made (140) and three-point field goal percentage (.394) and was in the school's top-10 in assists (241) at the conclusion of his collegiate career. Chappell went on to play professionally for five years (2007-12) with BBC Bayreuth, TV Langen and Licher Basket Baerans in the Pro-A German Basketball League.

A native of Beaumont, Texas, Chappell earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration-Marketing from Lamar University in 2006. Following his playing career, he received his master's degree in Educational Leadership from Northern Arizona University in 2016.

Chappell was a standout on the basketball court at Ozen High School in Beaumont, where he helped guide the Panthers to a 36-0 record and the Class 4A state championship as a junior in 2001. He was high school teammates at Ozen with 2008 NBA Champion Kendrick Perkins (Boston Celtics).

Assistant Coach Byron Jones

Second season at Texas

Byron Jones is in his second season as Assistant Coach at the University of Texas and his ninth year in association with Rodney Terry. Jones brings 26 years of coaching experience to the Texas staff.

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. With its victory over Colorado State in the NCAA Round of 64, the Longhorns won their NCAA First Round game for the third consecutive season. This marked the first time Texas has accomplished the feat since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09.

UT finished at No. 25 in the final KenPom team rankings, recorded five Quad 1 wins and earned three victories against AP-ranked opponents, including a 75-73 home win over No. 9 Baylor, a 75-60 victory at No. 11 Oklahoma and a 77-66 win at No. 25 TCU. The Longhorns were one of 11 teams to rank in the top 31 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency.

Dylan Disu was named the Big 12's Most Improved Player, becoming the first Texas player to claim the honor since it began during the 2019-20 season, and earned first-team All-Big 12 mention from the coaches. Max Abmas garnered a spot on the first-team All-Big 12 team from the media and the five-person Big 12 All-Newcomer Team. In addition, Abmas was named the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Division I Men's Basketball Team Member of the Year, while Disu was named the Big 12 Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Prior to coming to Austin, Jones spent three seasons (2020-23) as an assistant coach at Troy. In his last two years at Troy, the Trojans were the only school in the Sun Belt Conference to record back-to-back 20-win seasons, including double-digit victory totals in league play in both years. During the 2022-23 campaign, the Trojans registered a 20-13 overall record, including an 11-7 mark in Sun Belt Conference action. Picked 10th in the conference's preseason poll after losing five of its top six scorers from the 2021-22 team, Troy placed fifth in the league and finished just one game out of fourth place and three games out of first. The Trojans topped Florida State 79-72 in Tallahassee, marking the school's first victory over a major conference opponent since 2012 and first against an ACC foe since a 1981 win over Georgia Tech. Troy also led eventual NCAA runner-up San Diego State by eight points midway through the second half during a five-point loss on the road to the Aztecs.

JONES' COACHING EXPERIENCE

2023-	Texas	Assistant Coach
2020-23	Troy	Assistant Coach
2019-20	Air Force	Assistant Coach
2011-18	Fresno State	Assistant Coach
2010-11	Winston-Salem State	Assistant Coach
2002-06	UNC Wilmington	Assistant Coach
1997-2002	Denver	Assistant Coach
1995-97	Eastern Kentucky	Assistant Coach
1993-95	Central Oklahoma	Graduate Assistant

Despite being picked to finish last in the league's preseason poll, Jones helped the Trojans to a 20-12 overall record and a 10-6 mark in Sun Belt play during the 2021-22 season. Troy returned to the postseason for the first time since 2016 with an appearance in the College Basketball Invitational. The Trojans won eight road games during the year, the most by the program since the 2009-10 season.

Jones served as an assistant coach at Air Force for one year (2019-20). Lavelle Scottie earned All-Mountain West accolades under Jones' guidance in Colorado Springs and left as the fourth-leading scorer in program history.

Before his time at Air Force, Jones worked for seven seasons (2011-18) as an assistant coach with Terry at Fresno State. The Bulldogs boasted an overall record of 126-108 during those seven years, and Fresno State posted 20-win seasons in four of the last five years and double-digit win totals in Mountain West Conference play in each of the last four seasons. Fresno State recorded 21 victories in 2013-14, 25 in 2015-16, 20 in 2016-17 and 21 in 2017-18. The Bulldogs went 10-8 in the Mountain West in 2014-15, 13-5 in 2015-16 (second place) and 11-7 in 2016-17 and 2017-18.

During the 2015-16 season, the Bulldogs registered a 25-10 record and the Mountain West Conference Tournament championship. Fresno State advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2001, and the 25 wins marked the third-most in school history.

Fresno State made an appearance in the NIT in 2016-17 and the finals of the CBI in 2013-14. The 2014-15 team recorded the school's first win over a Top 25 opponent (San Diego State) in 13 years. The 2013-14 Bulldogs, who rallied from a 1-7 start in league play to finish 9-9, notched the program's first 20-win season and postseason appearance in seven years. During Jones' second season in Fresno (2012-13), the Bulldogs claimed their first-ever win at UNLV.

Jones worked as an assistant coach for one year (2010-11) at Winston-Salem State. The Rams advanced to the 2011 NCAA Division II Tournament and claimed the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Southern Division title. Winston-Salem State won 19 games during the season, the most by the program in six years.

Jones spent four years (2002-06) as an assistant coach at UNC Wilmington. During his time with the Seahawks, UNC Wilmington posted an 83-40 overall record, including a 61-22 mark in Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) play, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2003 and 2006 after winning the CAA Tournament championship in both of those seasons. Jones helped develop four All-CAA selections, including 2003 Player of the Year Brett Blizzard.

Jones worked as an assistant coach for five seasons (1997-2002) at Denver, helping the school transition from Division II status to a member of the Sun Belt Conference in Division I. He helped sign 1998 Oklahoma Player of the Year Wahhab Carter in 1998.

Jones spent two years (1995-97) as an assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky. He began his full-time coaching career by working as a graduate assistant coach at Central Oklahoma for two seasons (1993-95). The Bronchos led NCAA Division II in scoring while winning the Lone Star Conference (LSC) Northern Division title and the LSC Tournament championship and advanced to the 1995 NCAA Division II Tournament.

A native of Oklahoma City, Okla., Jones was named the Oklahoma City Player of the Year and earned first-team all-state honors at Ulysses S. Grant High School as a senior in 1986-87. He also was a member of the 1986 Oklahoma Rams Junior Olympics team that won a national title, playing alongside a trio of future NBA players in Byron Houston, Richard Dumas and Brent Price.

Jones played college basketball at both Northern Oklahoma College and Eastern Kentucky. At Northern Oklahoma, he led the 1987-88 team to a 24-8 record and a Bi-State West Conference title while earning first-team all-conference and league Defensive Player of the Year honors. Jones helped the 1989-90 Eastern Kentucky team advance to the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship game.

Jones earned his bachelor's degree in Sports and Recreation Management from the University of Central Oklahoma in 1993. He also received his master's degree in Physical Education from Central Oklahoma in 1995.

Jones and his wife, Sulpicia Caro Jones, have three children, Antigone, Tannah and Bryton.

Assistant Coach Nick Matson

Second season at Texas

Nick Matson is in his first season as Assistant Coach at The University of Texas and his second year on the Texas staff. Matson, who has worked for 11 years with Rodney Terry and brings 14 years of experience in collegiate athletics to the Texas staff, served in the role of Men's Basketball Director of Operations in the 2023-24 season.

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. With its victory over Colorado State in the NCAA Round of 64, the Longhorns won their NCAA First Round game for the third consecutive season. This marked the first time Texas has accomplished the feat since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09.

UT finished at No. 25 in the final KenPom team rankings, recorded five Quad 1 wins and earned three victories against AP-ranked opponents, including a 75-73 home win over No. 9 Baylor, a 75-60 victory at No. 11 Oklahoma and a 77-66 win at No. 25 TCU. The Longhorns were one of 11 teams to rank in the top 31 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency.

Dylan Disu was named the Big 12's Most Improved Player, becoming the first Texas player to claim the honor since it began during the 2019-20 season, and earned first-team All-Big 12 mention from the coaches. Max Abmas garnered a spot on the first-team All-Big 12 team from the media and the five-person Big 12 All-Newcomer Team. In addition, Abmas was named the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Division I Men's Basketball Team Member of the Year, while Disu was named the Big 12 Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Prior to coming to Austin, Matson spent the 2022-23 season as an assistant coach at East Carolina University working for former Texas player Michael Schwartz. During Schwartz's first season at ECU, the Pirates posted a 16-17 overall record (6-12 American). The 16 wins marked the most by East Carolina in nearly a decade (2013-14), while the six league wins tied for the most since the Pirates joined the American Athletic Conference prior to the start of the 2014-15 season.

Matson served as an assistant coach under Terry for three years (2018-21) at UTEP and helped the Miners register a 29-27 record during their final two seasons in El Paso. In the second year at UTEP (2019-20), the Miners tallied a 17-15 overall mark, winning nine more games than the previous season. UTEP posted its first winning season in four years and registered a 13-4 record in the Haskins Center, its best home mark and most home wins in four seasons. The Miners defeated New Mexico State and New Mexico in the same season for the first time since 2008-09. UTEP also recorded its largest comeback victory in program history, overcoming a 24-point deficit against UTSA to win 80-77 in overtime.

Matson helped develop Bryson Williams, who earned All-C-USA first team and NABC District 11 first team accolades following the 2019-20 season. Williams became the first UTEP player in five years to claim first-team all-league recognition and the first since 2010 to garner the mention from the NABC. In Matson's first season (2018-19) in El Paso, Efe Odigie earn All-C-USA Freshman team accolades, as Odigie averaged a double-double (12.7 ppg, 10.1 rpg) for the season. Odigie was the first Miner to average a double-double since the 1981-82 season, and his rebounding average set a UTEP freshman record.

Before his time in El Paso, Matson worked for seven seasons (2011-18) with Terry at Fresno State. Matson served as a graduate assistant for one season (2011-12) and the Director of Basketball Operations for five years (2012-17) before elevating into the role of assistant coach during his final season (2017-18) with the Bulldogs. Fresno State boasted an overall record of 126-108 during those seven years, and the Bulldogs posted 20-win seasons in four of the last five years and double-digit win totals in Mountain West Conference play in each of the last four seasons. Fresno State recorded 21 victories in 2013-14, 25 in 2015-16, 20 in 2016-17 and 21 in 2017-18. The Bulldogs went 10-8 in the Mountain West in 2014-15, 13-5 in 2015-16 (second place) and 11-7 in 2016-17 and 2017-18.

During the 2015-16 season, the Bulldogs registered a 25-10 record and the Mountain West Conference Tournament championship. Fresno State advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2001, and the 25 wins marked the third-most in school history.

Fresno State made an appearance in the NIT in 2016-17 and the finals of the CBI in 2013-14. The 2014-15 team recorded the school's first win over a Top 25 opponent (San Diego State) in 13 years. The 2013-14 Bulldogs, who rallied from a 1-7 start in league play to finish 9-9, notched the program's first 20-win season and postseason appearance in seven years. During Matson's second season in Fresno (2012-13), the Bulldogs claimed their first-ever win at UNLV.

Matson spent the 2010-11 season as a graduate assistant at Murray State under head coach Billy Kennedy. In his role, Matson assisted with video, scouting and player development, including working with All-American guard and future NBA player Isaiah Canaan. Murray State registered a 23-9 overall record and won the Ohio Valley Conference regular season championship with a 14-4 mark in league play.

Matson began his career in coaching as an intern at Stanford under Johnny Dawkins during the 2009-10 season. Matson assisted with recruiting administration, team operations and scouting reports.

A native of Roseville, Calif., Matson was a two-year letterwinner at guard at Virginia Military Institute (Lexington, Va.) who played for head coach Duggar Baucom. During his senior year at VMI, Matson served as an undergraduate assistant coach and helped the Keydets post a 24-8 overall record that included an upset victory over Kentucky at Rupp Arena. Matson earned his bachelor's degree in Psychology from VMI in 2009.

General Manager Chris Ogden

16th season at Texas

Chris Ogden is in his second season as General Manager of Men's Basketball and his 16th year on the Texas staff. A former Texas player and assistant coach who spent three years as head coach at UTA, Ogden brings 21 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Texas staff.

Ogden returned to the Forty Acres prior to the 2021-22 season. He worked as Managing Director of Men's Basketball for 18 months, before he served in an interim role as Assistant Coach from early January 2023 through the end of the 2022-23 season.

Over the last three years in Austin, Ogden has helped the Longhorns post a 72-34 (.679) overall record including a 5-3 mark in NCAA Tournament games. Texas has advanced to at least the NCAA Round of 32 in each of the last three seasons, including making a run to the NCAA Elite Eight in Terry's first year as head coach in 2022-23. This marks the first time Texas has won its NCAA First Round game in three consecutive seasons since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09. The Longhorns are one of just eight programs nationally to advance to at least the NCAA Tournament Round of 32 in each of the last three years, joining Baylor, Creighton, Gonzaga, Houston, Kansas, Michigan State and Tennessee.

Ogden has played a huge role in the creation of a true home court advantage for the Longhorns in the first two seasons inside Moody Center, the $375 million world-class arena located on campus that opened in April 2022. Texas has registered a 30-5 record in Moody and has averaged 10,819 fans per game during the arena's first two years. Moody Center's official capacity is 10,763 but there is a standing-room only area in the upper concourse for UT students used as overflow for the Corral, the official UT student section which surrounds 270-degrees of the court.

Texas played in front of a sellout crowd in all 17 contests (16-1 record) in Moody Center and averaged 10,965 fans per game during the 2022-23 season. The Longhorns posted a 6-0 record against AP Top 25 opponents that year, including a 3-0 mark against AP Top 10 foes with wins over No. 2 Gonzaga, No. 3 Kansas and No. 7 Creighton. Texas also won its Throwback Game in historic Gregory Gymnasium on the UT campus and posted an overall mark of 17-1 in home games in 2022-23, tying the school record for most home wins in a season (also went 17-1 in 2007-08).

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. UT finished at No. 25 in the final KenPom team rankings, recorded five Quad 1 wins and earned three victories against AP-ranked opponents. The Longhorns were one of 11 teams to rank in the top 31 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency.

Texas completed the 2022-23 campaign with an overall record of 29-9 (12-6 Big 12, second) and ranked No. 5 in the final Associated Press poll. The No. 5 spot marked a tie for the highest ranking in the final AP poll by the Longhorns. UT also was No. 5 in the final AP poll during the 2002-03 Final Four season. The Longhorns advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the first time since 2008 and eighth time in program history. Texas captured its second Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship title in program history, defeating No. 3 Kansas, 76-56, in the championship game in Kansas City, Mo.

The 29 wins were the third-most in a single season in program history, as UT went 31-7 in 2007-08 and 30-7 in 2005-06. The Longhorns compiled a 10-7 record against AP Top 25 opponents in 2022-23. This set a school single-season record for most wins in a year against AP-ranked teams, as UT previously went 8-5 in 2003-04. Texas posted a 6-3 mark against AP Top 11 foes during the 2022-23 season and tied a program single-season record for most games played (38).

In his first year back in Austin in 2021-22, Ogden helped the Longhorns to a 22-12 overall record (10-8 Big 12 Conference, fourth). Texas earned an 81-73 win over Virginia Tech in the NCAA Tournament Round of 64, marking the school's first NCAA tourney win since 2014, before falling to No. 10/9 (No. 3 seed) Purdue in a hard-fought battle in the Round of 32.

The 22 total wins by the Longhorns were the most since Texas had 24 victories in 2013-14. UT, which appeared in every Associated Press Top 25 poll except one during the season, placed No. 25 in the final AP poll. The Longhorns reached the 20-win mark in the month of February for the first time since 2013-14 and reached the 20-win mark in the regular season for the first time since 2015-16.

Off the court in 2021-22, Ogden assisted in prioritizing student attendance and knocked that objective out of the park. Texas students filled their lower bowl sections to capacity in the final year of the Frank Erwin Center during every game while school was in session. In a student-only attendance game at Gregory Gym, an electric crowd of 2,834 packed the historic on-campus gym and watched the Longhorns post a 73-57 win over Sam Houston (Nov. 29). This event marked the first men's basketball contest inside Gregory since Texas hosted Baylor on Feb. 26, 1977 in the first round of the Southwest Conference Tournament.

UT set a single-season record for most season tickets distributed (9,287), topping the previous mark of 8,882 achieved in 2004-05. The Longhorns recorded a total of three sellouts in the final season of the Erwin Center, marking the first sellout since Feb. 29, 2016 against No. 1 Kansas. The total attendance during the 2021-22 season in the Erwin Center was 232,729 fans in 18 games, marking the fourth-highest single-season attendance total in Erwin Center history and most since the 2010-11 season.

During Ogden's three seasons (2018-21) as head coach at UTA, the Mavericks posted a 44-47 (.484) overall mark, including a 31-24 (.564) record in Sun Belt Conference play. He inherited a program that returned just one scholarship player and 3.2 percent of its scoring from the 2017-18 season, the fewest by any Division I team in the country.

In his first year in Arlington (2018-19), Ogden guided UTA to a 17-16 mark, a tie for second in the league (12-6) and a trip to the Sun Belt Tournament title game. The Mavericks were predicted to finish second-to-last in the league's preseason poll. The nine-spot improvement from preseason to end-of-season conference finish tied for the best in the nation with Siena, who was picked 11th in the MAAC and ended in a four-way tie for second.

Ogden was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and the NABC District 24 Coach of the Year. He was a finalist for the Hugh Durham Award, presented annually to the nation's top mid-major coach, and the Joe B. Hall Award, given annually to the top first-year head coach in Division I.

Despite an overall mark of 14-18 in his second season, the Mavericks registered a 10-10 mark in Sun Belt play. UTA played the third-toughest non-conference schedule of any team in the nation, and 13 of its losses were by eight points or less including a 72-66 defeat at No. 8 Gonzaga. Ogden led the Mavericks to a 13-13 record in the 2020-21 season and a 9-8 mark in league action.

Before his stint as a head coach at UTA, Ogden spent 15 years as an assistant on the staffs at Texas Tech University, the University of Tennessee and The University of Texas. Ogden's teams posted an overall mark of 346-173 (.667), and he helped those three programs make a combined 11 NCAA Tournament appearances, including three trips to the Elite Eight.

He worked under Chris Beard for two seasons at Texas Tech in 2016-17 and 2017-18. In his second year in Lubbock, the Red Raiders posted a 27-10 mark and advanced to the program's first NCAA Elite Eight. Texas Tech defeated Stephen F. Austin and Florida in the first and second rounds in Dallas, and followed with a 78-65 victory against No. 2 seed Purdue in the Sweet 16 before falling to eventual National Champion Villanova in the Elite Eight. The Red Raiders finished second in the Big 12 (11-7 record) and earned a No. 6 ranking in the final USA Today/Coaches Top 25 poll.

Following the 2017-18 season, Zhaire Smith was selected as the No. 16 pick in the NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns. Ogden had a major role in the recruitment of several players who went on to lead Texas Tech to a NCAA runner-up finish in 2018-19.

Prior to his time at Texas Tech, Ogden worked as an assistant coach under Rick Barnes for the 2015-16 season at Tennessee. He served a total of 12 years on the Texas staff, including seven seasons as an assistant coach, four as an administrative assistant and one as a student assistant coach.

During his seven years as a full-time assistant with the Longhorns (2008-15), Ogden helped UT post a 155-87 (.640) record and make six NCAA Tournament appearances. A total of six McDonald's All-Americans made their way to the UT campus in that seven-year period, including Avery Bradley, 2009; Cory Joseph, 2010; Tristan Thompson, 2010; Myck Kabongo, 2011; Cameron Ridley, 2012; and Myles Turner, 2014). Texas' six-man freshman class in 2012 was ranked No. 4 nationally by ESPN, while the six-man class in 2011 was also tabbed the No. 4 class in the nation by ESPN. UT's two-man class of Joseph and Thompson in 2010 was ranked No. 8 in the country by ESPN. The three-man class in 2009 was tabbed No. 3 nationally by Rivals and No. 4 by ESPNU and included Bradley, the top-rated recruit in the country by ESPNU.

UT climbed to the top of both major national polls (AP and USA Today Coaches) on Jan. 11, 2010, marking the first time in program history that the Longhorns had been the top-ranked team in the nation in either major poll. Texas held the top spot in both polls for a two-week stretch. UT set a school record for most wins in a season (31-7) in 2007-08. While using a starting rotation that featured four freshmen (including eventual consensus National Player of the Year Kevin Durant) and a sophomore in 2006-07, the Longhorns went 25-10 and advanced to the NCAA Second Round. In 2005-06, Texas posted a 30-7 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

While he was an assistant coach at Texas, seven players had their name called during the NBA Draft with six of those being first-round selections. The list of draft picks includes: Avery Bradley, No. 19 by Boston in 2010; Damion James, No. 24 by Atlanta in 2010; Dexter Pittman, No. 32 by Miami in 2010; Tristan Thompson, No. 4 by Cleveland in 2011; Jordan Hamilton, No. 26 by Dallas in 2011; Cory Joseph, No. 29 by San Antonio in 2011; and Myles Turner, No. 11 by Indiana in 2015.

Ogden played four years (2000-03) at forward for the Longhorns and was a member of four NCAA Tournament teams. He completed his career at Texas as the winningest player in school history with 97 total victories.

The team captain as a senior during UT's run to the Final Four in 2002-03, Ogden played in 85 career games (three starts) and totaled 144 career points, 88 rebounds and 40 assists. He earned the team's Jay Arnette Award as a junior (2001-02), honoring a player for his behind-the-scenes efforts and contributions to the team.

Following his collegiate playing career, he joined the UT basketball staff as a student assistant coach for one year (2003-04) while he completed his undergraduate degree. He earned his bachelor's of science degree in Education from The University of Texas in 2004.

A native of Seminole, Texas, Ogden played four years of varsity basketball at Seminole High School. He was tabbed the state of Texas' Mr. Basketball in his senior year (1998-99), when he averaged 17.3 points, 10.6 rebounds and 8.5 assists per game while leading his team to a 36-4 record and a runner-up finish at the Class 3A state tournament.

Ogden and his wife, Katie, have three children, Bo, Ellie and Parker. Katie earned her bachelor's degree from The University of Texas and went on to graduate from The University of Texas School of Law in 2006. She served as UT student body president in 2002-03.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING, ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

First season at Texas

Darby Rich is in his first season as Strength and Conditioning, Athletic Performance for the Men's Basketball program at The University of Texas. Rich brings 21 years of sports performance coaching experience and 27 overall years of service in collegiate athletics to the Texas staff. During his coaching career, he has helped lead 10 teams to the NCAA Tournament and developed 15 NBA players.

Prior to coming to Austin, Rich spent the 2023-24 season as Men's Basketball Strength and Conditioning Coach at the University of Memphis with head coach Penny Hardaway. The Tigers posted a 22-10 overall record, including an 11-7 mark in the American Athletic Conference during the 2023-24 season.

Rich worked for two years (2021-23) as the Men's Basketball Strength and Conditioning Coach at Texas Tech University. The Red Raiders registered a 27-10 overall mark, including a 12-6 record in the Big 12 Conference (third place) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 16 during the 2021-22 season. Texas Tech went 18-0 at home for the first time in program history in the regular season, finished at No. 12 in both the final AP and USA TODAY Coaches' polls, and ranked No. 1 nationally in KenPom defensive efficiency.

Prior to his time in Lubbock, Rich spent two years (2019-21) as the Men's Basketball Strength and Conditioning Coach at Memphis with Coach Hardaway. The Tigers recorded back-to-back 20-win seasons and won the 2021 NIT Championship. Memphis tallied a 21-10 overall record in 2019-20 prior to the postseason being canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Precious Achiuwa earned AAC Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year honors in 2020. James Wiseman was the No. 2 selection by the Golden State Warriors and Achiuwa was the No. 20 pick by the Miami Heat in the 2020 NBA Draft. The Tigers registered a 20-8 overall mark (11-4 AAC) and claimed the NIT Championship in 2020-21, and Moussa Cisse was named the AAC Freshman of the Year. Memphis ranked No. 1 nationally in KenPom defensive efficiency during the 2020-21 season.

Rich worked for eight years (2011-19) as the Men's Basketball Strength and Conditioning Coach at Texas A&M University with head coach Billy Kennedy. During his time in College Station, Rich helped develop six NBA players including Robert Williams, Khris Middleton, Danuel House, Alex Caruso, Tyler Davis and Jalen Jones and nine all-conference individuals. The Aggies tallied a total of 151 victories (18.9 per season) during Rich's eight seasons in College Station, won the 2016 Southeastern Conference regular-season title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 16 in both 2016 and 2018.

Middleton was the No. 39 selection in the 2012 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons who became a three-time NBA All-Star and won the NBA Championship in 2021 with the Milwaukee Bucks. After going undrafted in the 2016 NBA Draft, House has played in nearly 300 career NBA games for six teams (Washington Wizards, Phoenix Suns, Houston Rockets, New York Knicks, Utah Jazz and Philadelphia 76ers) over the last eight years. Caruso, also undrafted in the 2016 NBA Draft, finished as Texas A&M's all-time leader in career assists (649) and steals (27). He has spent seven seasons in the NBA with the Los Angeles Lakers and Chicago Bulls, winning an NBA Championship in 2020 with the Lakers and earning NBA All-Defensive First Team honors in 2023 with the Bulls.

During the 2015-16 season, Texas A&M posted a 28-9 overall record (13-5 SEC), claimed the SEC regular-season championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 16. The following year in 2016-17, freshman Robert Williams earned SEC Defensive Player of the Year accolades. During the 2017-18 season, Texas A&M registered a 22-13 mark (9-9 SEC) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 16 and Williams again garnered SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors. Williams was the No. 27 pick of the 2018 NBA Draft by the Boston Celtics.

Rich worked as a volunteer assistant coach at Sam Houston State during the 2009-10 season. The Bearkats registered a 25-8 record (14-2 Southland), won the Southland Conference regular season and tournament championships and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 64.

Rich served for five years (2004-09) as Men's Basketball Strength and Conditioning Coach at the University of Oklahoma. The Sooners tallied a 114-50 (.695) overall mark during those five seasons, advancing to four NCAA Tournaments and winning one Big 12 regular season title. Oklahoma went 25-8 (12-4 Big 12), claimed the Big 12 regular season championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32 in the 2004-05 season. The following year in 2005-06, the Sooners posted a 20-9 mark (11-5 Big 12) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 64. Oklahoma registered a 23-12 record (9-7 Big 12) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32 in the 2007-08 season. During Rich's final year in Norman in 2008-09, the Sooners notched a 30-6 mark (13-3 Big 12) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. Blake Griffin earned consensus National Player of the Year honors in 2009 and was selected as the No. 1 pick in the 2009 NBA Draft by the Los Angeles Clippers.

Rich spent two years (2002-04) as the strength and conditioning coach for the Men's and Women's Basketball programs at the University of South Carolina. The men's basketball team tallied a 23-11 mark (8-8 SEC) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 64 during the 2003-04 season. The Gamecocks' women's team registered a 23-8 record and went to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32 in the 2002-03 campaign.

He worked for one-and-a-half years (2001-02) as a strength and conditioning intern with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, working under legendary strength coach Joe Jurazsek. Rich spent three seasons (1998-2001) as an assistant coach at Sam Houston State. The Bearkats posted a 22-7 record in 1999-2000, winning the Southland Conference regular season title for the first time in program history and setting the school's Division I record for most wins in a season.

Rich began his collegiate coaching career by working for four years (1993-97) as an assistant coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College. In addition to his assistant coaching duties, he also served as the school's strength and conditioning coach. Hutchinson registered an overall record of 118-24 (.831) during Rich's four seasons with the Blue Dragons. Rich was hired by then-Hutchinson head coach and current Texas assistant coach Steve McClain. In the 1993-94 season, Rich and McClain led the Blue Dragons to a 35-4 overall record and the NJCAA National Championship.

During his undergraduate career, Rich played five seasons (1987-92) at the University of Alabama. He helped the Crimson Tide make four NCAA Tournament appearances (1989, 1990, 1991 and 1992), including back-to-back Sweet 16 trips in 1990 and 1991. Rich serves as a team tri-captain during his senior year in 1991-92 and was collegiate teammates with future NBA stars Robert Horry (1988-92) and Latrell Sprewell (1990-92).

A native of Greer, S.C., Rich is a 1992 graduate of the University of Alabama with a degree in criminal justice. He was an all-state basketball player at Riverside High School. Rich and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Case and Cannon.

Toby Lane

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS & ANALYTICS

First season at Texas

Toby Lane is in his first year as Director of Video Operations & Analytics with the men's basketball program at The University of Texas. Lane, who brings 28 years of collegiate experience to the Texas staff, has been a part of five NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the NCAA Elite Eight in 2003 at Oklahoma.

Prior to coming to Austin, Lane spent the 2023-24 season as Director of Basketball Operations at Wichita State University. He worked for one year (2022-23) as the Director of Operations at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock.

Lane spent eight seasons (2014-22) at the University of Tulsa in several capacities. He worked for two years (2014-16) as Video Coordinator and four seasons (2016-20) as the Director of Scouting before moving to the bench for two years (2020-22) as Assistant Coach. The Golden Hurricane made an appearance in the First Four of the 2016 NCAA Tournament. Tulsa posted a 21-10 record and claimed a share of the American Athletic Conference regular-season title (first in program history) in 2019-20 with a 13-5 league mark prior to the postseason being canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Lane worked at the University of Missouri for three seasons (2011-14). He spent one year as Video Coordinator and two seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations with the Tigers. Prior to his time in Columbia, he served four years (2007-11) as the Associate Director of Basketball Operations at the University of Miami. The Hurricanes registered a 23-11 record and advanced to the NCAA Round of 32 in the 2007-08 season.

Lane spent three years (2004-07) on the bench as Assistant Coach at Southeast Missouri State University. He served for two seasons (2002-04) as Video Coordinator at the University of Oklahoma. The Sooners tallied a 27-7 mark, won the Big 12 Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight during the 2002-03 season. Lane spent one year (2001-02) as an administrative assistant at Long Beach State University.

Lane worked for four years (1997-2001) at the University of Central Oklahoma. He spent the 1997-99 seasons as a graduate assistant before serving as a full-time assistant coach for the following two years. UCO posted a 25-7 record and reached the NCAA Division II Sweet 16 in 1997-98.

Lane began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Neosho County Community College (Chanute, Kan.) during the 1996-97 season. He served as head coach for three years (1993-96) at Goessel High School in Goessel, Kan.

A native of Benton, Kan., Lane earned his bachelor's degree in Secondary Mathematics Education from Wichita State University in 1993. He later received his master's degree in General Education with an emphasis in Higher Education from the University of Central Oklahoma in 1999.

Tyler Pacheco

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING

Second season at Texas

Tyler Pacheco is in his first year as Director of Recruiting and his second season with the men's basketball program at The University of Texas. Pacheco served in the role of Graduate Manager during the 2023-24 season.

In July 2024, Pacheco was hired as the director of basketball operations at Cal State Fullerton and was a designated on-the-floor coach for the Titans. He served in that role until he returned to Austin in October 2024 in the position of Director of Recruiting.

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. With its victory over Colorado State in the NCAA Round of 64, the Longhorns won their NCAA First Round game for the third consecutive season. This marked the first time Texas has accomplished the feat since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09.

While at Texas, Pacheco was named to the 2024 50 Nxt Up – Men's Support Staff by Silver Waves Media. The list identified 50 individuals who are 'Next Up' to receive promotions to assistant coach roles.

Pacheco earned his bachelor's degree in Communication with a minor in Marketing from the University of Arizona in 2023. While he was an undergraduate, Pacheco spent his summers assisting in NBA pre-draft and various skill development sessions. The list of players he worked with includes Klay Thompson, Jalen Green, Bennedict Mathurin, A.J. Johnson, P.J. Washington, Cole Swider and Stanley Johnson.

A native of Fresno, Calif., Pacheco was a three-year letterwinner in basketball at Clovis East High School. He served as captain in his senior season while leading the team to the 2020 Division I Central Section title.

Tristen Licon

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Third season at Texas

Tristen Licon is in his first year as Director of Player Development and his third season with the men's basketball program at The University of Texas. Licon served in the role of Graduate Assistant during the 2022-23 and 2023-24 seasons.

In his first two years in Austin, Licon has helped the Longhorns post a 50-22 (.694) overall record. Texas has made two NCAA Tournament appearances (2023 Elite Eight and 2024 Round of 32) and claimed the 2023 Big 12 Tournament title.

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. With its victory over Colorado State in the NCAA Round of 64, the Longhorns won their NCAA First Round game for the third consecutive season. This marked the first time Texas has accomplished the feat since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09.

Texas completed the 2022-23 season with an overall record of 29-9 (12-6 Big 12, second) and ranked No. 5 in the final Associated Press poll. The No. 5 spot marked a tie for the highest ranking in the final AP poll by the Longhorns. UT also was No. 5 in the final AP poll during the 2002-03 Final Four season. The Longhorns advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the first time since 2008 and eighth time in program history. Texas captured its second Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship title in program history, defeating No. 3 Kansas, 76-56, in the championship game in Kansas City, Mo.

The 29 wins were the third-most in a single season in program history, as UT went 31-7 in 2007-08 and 30-7 in 2005-06. The Longhorns compiled a 10-7 record against AP Top 25 opponents in 2022-23. This set a school single-season record for most wins in a year against AP-ranked teams, as UT previously went 8-5 in 2003-04. Texas posted a 6-3 mark against AP Top 11 foes during the 2022-23 season and tied a program single-season record for most games played (38). The Longhorns were one of three teams to rank in the top 15 in KenPom in both adjusted offensive and defensive efficiency. Texas (15 offense, 13 defense) was joined by UConn (3 offense, 7 defense) and Houston (11 offense, 5 defense).

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Licon played for one season (2021-22) at Texas as a graduate transfer. He originally enrolled at UT with the intention of joining the coaching staff as a graduate assistant, but he took the opportunity to complete his playing eligibility with the extra year granted due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Licon saw action in 16 games and registered totals of 22 points, seven rebounds and five steals in 67 minutes while converting 4-of-10 three-pointers during the season. The Longhorns posted a 22-12 overall record (10-8 Big 12 Conference, fourth) and earned an 81-73 win over Virginia Tech in the NCAA Tournament Round of 64, marking the school's first NCAA tourney win since 2014, before falling to No. 10/9 (No. 3 seed) Purdue in a hard-fought battle in the Round of 32. The 22 total wins by the Longhorns were the most since Texas had 24 victories in 2013-14. UT, which appeared in every Associated Press Top 25 poll except one during the season, placed No. 25 in the final AP poll.

Licon elected to transfer to Texas after playing his first four seasons at Sul Ross State, a NCAA Division III school in Alpine, Texas. He played in 99 career games (65 starts) during his four years at Sul Ross and ranked second in career scoring (1,579 points) and second in career rebounds (548) in program history. Licon posted career averages of 15.9 points, 5.5 rebounds and 2.6 assists in 30.9 minutes per game. He was a two-time American Southwest Conference (ASC) all-league selection, two-time D3hoops.com All-South Region second-team pick and a four-time ASC West Division choice. Licon earned his bachelor's degree in May 2020 from Sul Ross State in Kinesiology and Human Performance. He received his master's degree in August 2021 from Sul Ross State in Education.

Support Staff

As a senior in 2020-21, Licon led the team in scoring (20.4 ppg), rebounding (8.3 rpg) and steals (45) and earned ASC Defensive Player of the Year honors. During his junior year in 2019-20, he led the team in scoring (19.3 ppg), assists (80) and steals (53) and claimed ASC West Division Player of the Year accolades. As a freshman in 2017-18, Licon earned ASC West Division Newcomer of the Year honors and helped the Lobos win the ASC regular season and tournament championships and advance to the NCAA Division III Tournament first round. He attended Lubbock Christian University (Lubbock, Texas) for one year (2016-17) prior to enrolling at Sul Ross State.

A native of El Paso, Texas, Licon was a four-year letterwinner in basketball at Americas High School. He was a two-time Texas Association of Basketball Coaches (TABC) 6A All-Region I first-team selection. Licon earned District 1-6A Most Valuable Player and the El Paso Times Most Valuable Player honors as a senior in 2016 while leading Americas to a 32-1 mark.

Kat Stanley

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL ADMINISTRATION

10th season at Texas

Kat Stanley is in her first year as Director of Basketball Administration and her 10th season with the men's basketball program at The University of Texas. She served as an administrative associate during her first eight years at Texas before returning to the basketball staff in the role of Senior Program Administrator in July 2023.

Stanley worked for two years (2021-23) as Director of Operations – Survivor Services for the Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS). TAPS is a nationally-recognized leader in providing peer-based emotional support to those grieving a military death. In her role, Stanley provided operational support to the organization's Vice President and strategic guidance for a division of six teams connecting approximately 7,500 newly-bereaved military survivors coming to TAPS annually for resources and programming.

Stanley served for two years (2018-20) as Strategic Partnerships – Grant Manager for Mission Capital. She developed and streamlined processes and systems across multiple departments associated with grant management to ensure successfully maintaining a $2 million foundation budget.

Stanley also spent three previous years at TAPS in the roles of Survivor Programs – Deputy Director (2016-17), Survivor Programs - Retreat Manager (2015-16) and Survivor Programs – Retreat Program Coordinator (2014-15). She directed military survivor programs consisting of regional and national seminars, retreats and youth programs the collectively brought together more than 3,500 survivors annually at 42 events across the country.

Prior to her time with TAPS, Stanley worked for eight years (2006-14) as an administrative associate with the Texas Men's Basketball program.

A native of Rosenberg, Texas, Stanley received her bachelor's degree in Marketing from the prestigious McCombs School of Business at The University of Texas in 2006. During her undergraduate time in Austin, she worked for two years (2004-06) as a student assistant in the Men's Basketball office.

Warren Young

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC TRAINER

Fifth season at Texas

Warren Young is in his second season as the Senior Associate Athletic Trainer and his fifth year with the men's basketball program at The University of Texas.

During Young's first four years in Austin, the Longhorns have registered a 91-42 (.684) overall record, made four NCAA Tournament appearances including a run to the Elite Eight in 2023, and claimed a pair of Phillips 66 Big 12 Tournament titles (2021 and 2023). Young has worked with three NBA Draft selections in Kai Jones, Greg Brown III and Jericho Sims, in addition to Timmy Allen, who has seen action with the Memphis Grizzlies.

Prior to joining the Texas Athletics staff in November 2020, Young spent the previous 10 years as Senior Associate Athletic Trainer at SMU covering men's basketball. During his time at SMU, Young worked with future NBA players Jeryl Sasser, Quinton Ross, Sterling Brown, Ben Moore, Semi Ojeleye, Feron Hunt and Shake Milton along with legendary Hall of Fame coach Larry Brown. Since 2018, he also assisted the Dallas Mavericks' sports medicine staff with home game coverage.

Young spent three years as the Director of Sports Medicine at Texas A&M University-Commerce (2007-10). While at A&M-Commerce, he not only served as the Director of Sports Medicine and Head Football Athletic Trainer but also as the sport administrator for football and the supervisor of the athletic facilities.

Young previously worked at SMU from 2002-07 in the role of Assistant Football Athletic Trainer and Director of Undergraduate Student Athletic Trainer Program. He was a Student Athletic Trainer at SMU from 1995-2000. His sports coverage at SMU has included basketball, football, golf, swimming and diving, track and field and cross country.

Young worked as an athletic trainer for the Dallas Cowboys (NFL) from 1997-2002, Dallas Burn (Major League Soccer) in 2004, and Dallas Desperados (Arena Football League) in 2002.

Young is a certified athletic trainer by the National Athletic Trainer Association Board of Certification and a licensed athletic trainer in the state of Texas. He is CPR/AED certified and a member of the College Athletic Trainer Society. He completed the requirements to become a Corrective Exercise Specialist and is also Dry Needling certified.

Young currently serves as a Clinical Preceptor in conjunction with The University of Texas Accredited Athletic Training Education Program. He was previously a Clinical Preceptor at the University of Texas-Arlington, Texas A&M University-Commerce and Texas State University.

Away from work, he has been involved with the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, Jesuit College Preparatory School of Dallas, Pi Kappa Alpha, Knights of Columbus and the Ryan Gibson Foundation for Leukemia Advocacy. Young was inducted into the Jesuit Dallas Sports Hall of Fame in 2001 and is also an Eagle Scout.

Young earned his bachelor's degree from SMU in 2000 and his Master's degree from SMU in 2004. He and his wife, Annie, have one daughter, Natalie, and reside in Buda.

Chris Quinn

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS

Ninth season at Texas

Chris Quinn is in his second year as Assistant Director, Equipment Operations and his ninth season in association with The University of Texas. He is responsible for all aspects of designing, ordering, maintaining, storing and distributing equipment for the Men's Basketball program, as well as supervising a staff of student managers.

Quinn spent two years (2021-23) working with the Texas Baseball team and five seasons (2016-21) with the Texas Track and Field/Cross Country program.

Quinn served for four years (2012-16) as an Olympic Sports equipment manager at the University of Wisconsin. During his time with the Badgers, he worked with 14 different sports, including Softball, Track and Field, Volleyball and Wrestling.

A native of Nevada, Texas, Quinn earned his bachelor's degree in Sport Management from The University of Texas in 2010 and his master's degree in General Kinesiology from UT in 2012. During his undergraduate career, he served for two years (2005-07) as a volunteer student assistant with the Men's Basketball team. Quinn transitioned into the role of student manager for the following five seasons (2007-12).

Quinn and his wife, Stephanie, reside in Austin with their daughter, Ophelia.

Giles Gilliam

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Second season at Texas

Giles Gilliam is in his second year as Graduate Assistant with the men's basketball program at The University of Texas.

During the 2023-24 season, Texas posted a 21-13 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. With its victory over Colorado State in the NCAA Round of 64, the Longhorns won their NCAA First Round game for the third consecutive season. This marked the first time Texas has accomplished the feat since UT won four-straight NCAA First-Round games from 2006-09.

Prior to coming to Austin, Gilliam served as a graduate assistant for two years (2021-23) at UTEP for head coach Joe Golding. During the 2021-22 season, the Miners posted a 20-14 overall record (12-6 Conference USA) to register their first 20-win season since earning a 22-11 mark in 2014-15. UTEP earned a spot in The Basketball Classic for its first postseason appearance since 2015 and claimed an 80-54 victory over Western Illinois in the opening round to post its first postseason win since 2009.

Gilliam also worked as a volunteer assistant for one season (2020-21) at Mary Hardin-Baylor for head coach Clif Carroll. The Crusaders tallied a 16-4 overall record (13-0 American Southwest Conference) and won the ASC West Division title.

Gilliam concluded his collegiate playing career under Carroll at Sul Ross State (Alpine, Texas) during the 2019-20 season. He saw action in 23 games (five starts) and played 237 total minutes while helping Sul Ross post a 17-10 overall record (13-3 ASC).

Gilliam played his first two years (2017-19) of collegiate basketball at Colorado Christian University (Lakewood, Colo.). He earned his bachelor's degree in Global Studies from Colorado Christian University in 2020.

A native of Dripping Springs, Texas, Gilliam played basketball for Dripping Springs High School. He was a member of the 2013-14 district championship team and earned all-district and all-county honors.

Connor Creech

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

First season at Texas

Connor Creech is in his first year as Graduate Assistant with the men's basketball program at The University of Texas.

Prior to coming to Austin, Creech was a four-year member (2021-24) of the basketball team at the University of Northern Colorado. During his four seasons with the Bears, Creech saw action in 53 career games (eight starts) and posted 80 points and 88 rebounds in 529 minutes. A walk-on during his first two seasons at Northern Colorado, he earned a scholarship for his final two years and was a two-time selection to the university's honor roll.

In his senior year (2023-24), Creech played in 22 games (one start) and helped the Bears post a 19-14 overall record and advance to the first round of the College Basketball Invitational. He appeared in 28 games (seven starts) as a junior and ranked fourth on the team in steals (12). Creech earned his bachelor's degree in Sport Management with a minor in Business from the University of Northern Colorado in 2024.

A native of Hastings, Neb., Creech played basketball at Hastings High School. A two-time all-state and three-time all-conference selection, he graduated as the program's all-time leader in career points and field goals made and ranked second in assists. Creech earned first-team all-state accolades as a senior in 2019-20, averaging 16.4 points, 5.9 rebounds and 5.0 assists per game while leading Hastings to the Nebraska Class B Elite Eight. He claimed second-team all-state accolades during his junior season. Creech also played baseball and earned all-state honors as a pitcher as he set the program record and tied the Nebraska state mark for career saves.

(#) Texas made its first trip east of the Mississippi River when it faced Auburn. The game was the second of a three-game road trip that saw the Longhorns play at Tulane, Auburn and LSU in a five-day span. Said the 1911 Cactus Yearbook: "They took a Southern tour, which was disastrous from the standpoint of victory but glorious for spreading the Texas spirit of good sportsmanship. Every report made mention of this fact. Our team had better individual players than the teams played, but the games were held indoors and at night, conditions which were entirely new to the Texas team."

(!) at Madison Square Garden

For the two games against the Kilgore Pipeliners, no dates were available. Texas made its first trip to Madison Square Garden on Dec. 26, 1939, to face Manhattan. Said the 1940 Cactus Yearbook: "One of the year's outstanding accomplishments was the trip to the East during the Christmas holidays for a test against the highly publicized Temple and Manhattan squads. Playing Manhattan in Madison Square Garden before 18,000 fans, the largest crowd ever to see a basketball game, the Steers brought prestige to Southwestern cagers by trouncing the Jaspers 54-32 for the worst defeat ever handed a New York team in the Garden."

SIX SECONDS SHORT

The University of Texas entered the 1947 NCAA Tournament as the favorite to win the national championship. The only blemish on the Longhorns' record was a 40-39 loss to Oklahoma A&M in the All-College Tournament at Oklahoma City. Texas traveled to Kansas City and defeated Wyoming to open the playoffs, prior to taking on an Oklahoma team it had beaten 62-50 earlier in the season. Texas led 29-22 at intermission only to see OU roar back to take a nine-point lead early in the second half. Up 53-48, Oklahoma began to freeze the ball with three minutes to play. UT's Dan Wagner hit a free throw to cut the margin to four with one minute on the clock. Wagner and Slater Martin then hit field goals to tie the score at 53-53 with 40 seconds to go. Texas' Al Madsen converted a free throw to put the Longhorns up 54-53 with 25 seconds remaining. Oklahoma's Ken Pryor scored the heartbreaker with just six seconds left for the final 55-54 margin. UT bounced back to defeat City College of New York in the third-place game at Madison Square Garden. Texas' 26-2 record was the best in the nation in 1946-47.

Gary Goodner's slam with 7:37 left in the first half of UT's 74-73 overtime win over Oklahoma State in the 1976-77 season opener ended a 10-year NCAA-imposed ban on the dunk (1968-1976). The game also was Abe Lemons' first as head coach of the Longhorns. Later that season, Mississippi State was assessed a technical foul for a dunk during pregame warmups. In protest of the rule that prohibited dunks in warmups but allowed them in games, Lemons ordered Jim Krivacs, a career 86.9 percent free throw shooter, to shoot the technical free throw with his back to the basket. Krivacs missed. Texas lost 91-89.

Texas in the Polls

The Associated Press began its basketball rankings on January 20, 1949, with a Top 20 poll. Starting in the 1961-62 season, AP provided a preseason poll. From 1960-61 to 1967-68, the AP used a Top 10 poll. The AP rankings became a Top 20 poll again in 1968-69, before changing to its current Top 25 format in 1989-90. AP also ran post-NCAA Tournament polls in 1953, 1954, 1974 and 1975.

HOME OF THE TEXAS LONGHORNS (2022-)

The Longhorns opened Moody Center for basketball in style with a 72-57 victory against UTEP on Nov. 7, 2022. The 1,100-seat Corral (the official men's basketball student section) was full one hour prior to tipoff, and several hundred additional students filled a standing room only section in the Upper Corral (upper balcony).

The official seating capacity for basketball in Moody Center is 10,763. The 2022-23 season opener against UTEP was a sellout with an official attendance of 11,313.

UTEP's Tae Hardy recorded the first points in the arena's history with a layup at the 18:24 mark. Timmy Allen notched the first points for the Longhorns with an old-fashioned three-point play at the 17:58 mark.

Texas has registered a 30-5 record during its first two seasons inside Moody Center and has averaged 10,819 fans per game.

HOME OF THE TEXAS LONGHORNS (1977-2022)

Johnny Moore's jumper from the top of the key christened the Frank Erwin Center as UT's home on Nov. 29, 1977. The 16,540-seat arena was an instant hit, as the 1977-78 Longhorns defeated Oklahoma 83-76 on opening day and went on to finish the season as NIT Champions. The Horns made themselves right at home at the Erwin Center – reeling off 25 straight wins before falling to Arkansas in February of 1979.

Forty-five years later, the Longhorns closed out the Erwin Center in the 2021-22 season with an overall home record of 549-143 (.793).

Retired Jersey Numbers

Kevin Durant (#35) • At Texas: 2007 • 2007 Consensus National Player of the Year

Kevin Durant spent just one season in Austin, but it was a season for the ages. Durant (born Sept. 29, 1988) led one of the youngest teams in school history (started one sophomore and four freshmen for the majority of the year) to a 25-10 mark and the NCAA Tournament Round of 32. Durant was the consensus National Player of the Year, becoming the first freshman in NCAA history to win any of the major National Player of the Year awards. A consensus first-team All-American, Durant was just the third freshman in NCAA history to earn that accolade (joining Wayman Tisdale of Oklahoma in 1983 and Chris Jackson of LSU in 1989).

He earned Big 12 Conference Player of the Year honors, becoming the first freshman to receive that award. Durant was the only player during the 2006-07 season to rank in the Top 10 nationally in both scoring (fourth) and rebounding (fourth). He led the Big 12 in scoring (25.8 ppg), rebounding (11.1 rpg) and blocked shots (67), and his 20 double-doubles ranked second nationally. Durant reached the 30-point mark 11 times, the 20-point plateau in 30 games and posted double digits in points in all 35 contests.

Durant turned professional following his freshman season and was selected by the Seattle Sonics (Oklahoma City Thunder) as the second overall pick in the 2007 NBA Draft. His No. 35 jersey was retired by The University of Texas on Feb. 25, 2009.

T.J. Ford was a two-year starter at point guard for the Longhorns in 2001-02 and 2002-03. He led Texas to an appearance in the "Sweet 16" as a freshman, earning National Freshman of the Year honors by the United States Basketball Writers Association. Ford (born March 24, 1983) became the first freshman in NCAA history to lead the nation in assists (8.27 apg) and was the consensus Big 12 Conference Freshman of the Year.

He returned to lead the Longhorns to their first Final Four appearance since 1947 during his sophomore campaign and won the Naismith and Wooden Awards as the top player in college basketball. Ford also was named National Player of the Year by Chevrolet, CBS SportsLine.com, ESPN.com, The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated. A consensus first-team All-American, he led the team in scoring (15.0 ppg), assists (7.7 apg), steals (2.0 spg), free throw percentage (.820) and minutes played (33.6 mpg). Ford finished his career in second place on UT's all-time career assists list (527) and held the top two single-season assists marks in school history (273 in 2001-02; 254 in 2002-03).

Ford turned professional after his sophomore season and was selected by the Milwaukee Bucks as the eighth overall pick in the 2003 NBA Draft. He played eight seasons in the NBA with the Bucks (2003-04 and 2005-06), Toronto Raptors (2006-08), Indiana Pacers (2008-11) and San Antonio Spurs (2011-12).

His No. 11 jersey was retired by The University of Texas on Feb. 8, 2004. Ford became the first UT basketball player and just the fourth athlete in University of Texas history to have his jersey number retired, joining Earl Campbell (football), Ricky Williams (football) and Roger Clemens (baseball).

Slater Martin (#15) • At Texas: 1944, '47-49 • Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Inductee

Slater Martin led Texas to a 63-14 record from 1947-49, including a third-place finish at the NCAA Tournament during his sophomore campaign in 1946-47. Martin (born Oct. 22, 1925) actually enrolled at Texas in the fall of 1943 and played four games as a freshman on the varsity squad. He went into military service following a 77-40 home victory over Texas A&M on Jan. 15, 1944.

Martin rejoined the Longhorns for the 1946-47 Final Four run. He earned third-team All-America honors from both the Helms Foundation and True Magazine as a junior in 1947-48. Martin garnered first-team All-America honors from the Helms Foundation and second-team All-America mention from Look Magazine during his senior year in 1948-49.

In his next-to-last game at Texas, he set a school single-game record with 49 points in an 81-60 victory against TCU on Feb. 26, 1949. During his collegiate career, he played in 78 games and broke UT's all-time scoring mark (984 points).

Following his collegiate days, Martin began an 11-year career in the National Basketball Association with the Minneapolis Lakers (1949-50 to 1955-56) and the St. Louis Hawks (1956-57 to 1959-60). The 5-10 guard established a reputation as one of the top defensive players in the league. He led his teams to five World Championships and reached the NBA Finals three additional times.

Martin claimed All-NBA honors five times and earned a spot in seven NBA All-Star Games (1953-59). He was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1962. In 1982, he became the first Longhorns player to be inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. His No. 15 jersey was retired by The University of Texas on Jan. 31, 2009. Martin passed away on Oct. 18, 2012 at the age of 86.

KEVIN DURANT

United States (2012, 2016, 2020, 2024)

Kevin Durant is the first men's player in USA Basketball history to capture four gold medals. He was the leading scorer on the United States team at the 2012 London Olympics. Durant's 30 points in the gold medal game tied for the third-highest single-game total in U.S. Olympic history. His 156 total points during the Olympic tournament set a record for most points scored by an American player in an Olympic competition, topping the previous mark of 145 set by Spencer Haywood in 1968 (Mexico City). During the eight games of the 2012 Olympics, Durant led Team USA in scoring (19.5 ppg) and ranked second in rebounding (5.8 rpg).

Four years later in Rio (2016), Durant tied his Olympic career high with 30 points in the Gold Medal game win. During his eight games in Rio, he led Team USA in scoring (19.4 ppg) and minutes (28.6 mpg) and ranked second in steals (eight), third in assists (28) and fourth in rebounding (5.0 rpg). Durant reached double figures in scoring in all eight contests.

Durant returned in 2021 in Tokyo (for the 2020 Games) and recorded a game-high 29 points to pace the Americans to an 87-82 win against France in the gold medal game. He reached double figures in scoring in all six contests in Tokyo and led the squad in scoring (20.7 ppg) and minutes (27.5 mpg), tied for the team lead in blocks (seven) and ranked second in rebounding (5.3 rpg) and assists (22).

During his six games at the 2024 Paris Olympics, Durant averaged 13.8 points, 3.2 rebounds and 2.3 assists in 22.2 minutes per game. He converted 27-of-50 (.540) from the floor, including 14-of-27 (.519) from three-point range, and 15-of-16 (.938) free throws. Durant posted 15 points to lead Team USA to a 98-87 win over host France in the gold medal game.

ALBERT ALMANZA

Mexico (1960, 1964)

A three-year letterwinner at Texas (1959-61), Albert Almanza was a two-time member of the Mexican Olympic team. In the 1960 Rome Olympics, he served as a co-captain and led the team in scoring (19.8 ppg) while helping Mexico to a 4-4 record and a 12th-place finish. Almanza returned for the 1964 Tokyo Olympics and again led the squad in scoring (14.7 ppg) while helping Mexico to a 3-6 mark and a 12th-place finish.

JAY ARNETTE

United States (1960)

A three-year letterwinner for the Longhorns (1958-60) who garnered All-America honors during his senior year, Jay Arnette earned a gold medal with the United States at the 1960 Rome Olympics. Arnette, who had just completed his collegiate eligibility, played in all eight games and averaged 2.9 points per contest for the Americans. The U.S. squad, coached by Cal's legendary Pete Newell, featured Oscar Robertson and Jerry West and is considered by many to be the best amateur basketball team in Olympic history. Ten members of the 12-man American roster went on to play in the NBA. Team USA averaged 101.9 points per game and posted a +42.4 points per game margin of victory en route to the gold medal.

GILBERT 'GIB' FORD

United States (1956)

A three-year letterwinner at Texas (1952-54), "Gib" Ford became Texas' first hardwood Olympian when he earned a gold medal with the United States at the 1956 Melbourne Games. Ford, who had finished his playing career at Texas in 1954, was 25 at the time of the Olympics and enlisted in the U.S. Armed Forces. He played in all eight games and averaged 4.9 points per contest. Behind the play of Bill Russell and K.C. Jones, two key players on the University of San Francisco's 1956 NCAA Championship team, Team USA averaged nearly 100 points per game and posted an impressive +53.5 points per game margin of victory en route to the gold medal.
